Describe your company in a few words :

Founded in 2001 by Frédérick Haas and Mira Glodeanu, Ausonia is committed to bringing to life the music of the 17th and 18th centuries by means of dedicated application of historical performance practices. Our continuous searching for the expressive possibilities inherent in this music has lead us to bring together several highly rare historic instruments with exceptional sonorities (Harpsichord by Hemsch-1751, Fortepiano by F. Hofmann ca. 1785, Violins by A. Chappuy-1757 and M. Groblicz- 1604, Violone by Ruggiero ca. 1690,...). Both active in chamber music and orchestral formation, in addition to projects enhanced with a theatrical aspect, Ausonia sets in profile the various potential dimensions of the ensemble. Through the elaboration of strikingly original concert programmes, we have succeeded in broadening our field of creativity and above all in establishing a compelling dialogue with the audience by rendering instantly palpable the profound qualities of complex oeuvres.

Ausonia is regularly invited to perform on the most prestigious baroque concert podia in France, Belgium, Holland, Germany, Spain, Romania, Russia, Canada...
