COMPANY : Andreas Prittwitz/Lookingback

Describe your company in a few words :

Music of the Renaissance, the Baroque... updated through the combination of original and modern instruments, period performance and modern improvisation...

The truth is that the result is absolutely surprising and the numerous concerts we have given in Spain (Early Music Festivals, National Auditorium, Jazz Festivals, Thyssen and Prado Museum etc.) were all hugely successful.

We believe that we have come up with a very original, elegant and novel formula that could be very well-received in Europe.

We would like to offer "Lookingback" for concerts, festivals and other activities.
